

Tom Daglis

Tom, a certified USPTA Master Pro, earned a M.S. degree in Career/Technical Education from Ferris State University, MI and a B.S. degree from Columbus State University, GA. Tom played scholarship tennis at NCAA Division I Hofstra University, NY and NCAA DII Columbus State University, GA and earned (4) conference titles. A former USPTA National President, Tom was honored by USPTA as MD Pro of the Year, GA Pro of the Year, Mid-Atlantic Pro of the Year, Southern Pro of the Year, and U.S. Pro of the Year. He is a member of the USPTA Southern Hall of Fame and was awarded the International Tennis Hall of Fame's Educational Merit Award. Tom was the former Director of Tennis at Atlanta C.C., GA and Lakewood C.C., MD and former Senior Pro at Harry Hopman International Tennis Academy, FL, where he trained ATP/WTA Touring Pros, and Davis Cup teams. He is a certified Master Racquet Technician by the USRSA.

Tom is the former Director of Professional Tennis Management at Ferris State University and Methodist University, and currently is the Director of the PTM Program at Berry College. He is the Executive Director of the Rome Tennis Center at Berry College, a new 60 lighted hard court facility.

Kyle LaCroix

Kyle is a USPTA Elite Professional and Assistant Director at The Oaks at Boca Raton, Florida. He is a member of the USPTA College Curriculum Committee and frequent speaker at tennis conferences around the country.

Kyle is a graduate of the Ferris State University's Professional Tennis Management (PTM) program and holds a degree in Marketing. He has also attained an MBA from the University of Michigan. Kyle has worked at four- and five-star resorts, exclusive private clubs, and summer camps during his career.

Kyle was awarded the USPTA George Basco Tester of the Year Award in 2014. Along with his teaching obligations, Kyle is a prolific writer. Having written for USPTA Advantage Magazine, Baselines USPTA Florida Division Magazine, the tennis blog LoveSetMatch.net, TennisTribe Online Magazine and currently for the world's leading tennis instructional website Tennisplayer.net.